

Field Trip: House of Photographic Arts,
<http://www.hopa.org/>

Address:
27182 Ortega Highway
San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675

Time: 5/02/18 Wednesday. Meet at 2:30.

NO guests are allowed; you must be enrolled in Wednesday's Intermediate Photography Class #20155 class in order to attend this field trip. You must have already signed class trip waiver in order to attend this special field trip opportunity. Space is extremely limited.

Parking: Park down below or in any available spots in the adjacent commercial strip. Private residence has spaces for no more than 7 - 8 cars. Carpooling is strongly recommended.

Show casing the work of Graham Nash

<https://www.grahamnash.com/content/%E2%80%9C-photography-graham-nash%E2%80%9D-open-house-photographic-art-historic-forster-mansion-artist%E2%80%99s>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ALDkZbqQos>

About Graham Nash's exhibit at HOPA and how Joni Mitchell inspired him to go public with his talent.

Also on display:

Phillip Stewart Charis, Ansel Adams, Sheila Metzner, and many more.
Edward Steichen, George Hurrell and Arnold Newman: spotlight on 4/25/18

About this location: Forster Mansion, now owned (since 1990) by Mrs. Mary Anne Charis, widow of Phillip Stewart Charis, world-renowned portrait photographer.

<http://www.bcre.com/forster-mansion-san-juan-capistrano-ca.php>

Mrs. Charis has been a collector of fine art photography (19th century-21st century) for much of her adult life and now shares her collection for the public's view.

Hungry afterwards?

Grab a bite at Cedar Creek Inn or Trevor's at the Tracks!